

Neil Barr Farm Forestry Foundation Scholarship

Background

New Zealand Farm Forestry Association (NZFFA) was formed in 1957 and is a network of tree growers practicing sustainable land management in rural New Zealand. The founder of the NZFFA was Neil Barr, a Northland farmer. In 1986, the Neil Barr Farm Forestry Foundation (NBFFF) was created, with the mission – ‘To promote and encourage the planting of trees on farms.’ The NBFFF wishes to support students at Lincoln University who have an affinity with farm forestry in New Zealand.

Regulations

1. Purpose

The NBFFF Scholarship was established in 2023 to promote and encourage an increase in students participating in farm forestry courses at Lincoln University.

2. Number/Value

Two scholarships up to a total value of $ 6000 are offered to fulltime students at Lincoln University.

| NBFFF Diploma Scholarship   | NBFFF Degree Scholarship   |
|---|--|
| Offered to Diploma in Farm Management students at Lincoln University who aim to complete the course Applied Agroforestry (FORS070). | Offered to Bachelor degree students at Lincoln University who aim to complete Applied Agroforestry (FORS270) and Agroforestry Systems (FORS312) as part of their degree. |

Scholarships will be paid in two halves. Successful recipients will be paid half upon enrolment in FORS070 or FORS270 and the remainder will be paid when all other criteria are met. In addition to the eligibility and payment criteria below, scholarship recipients will be offered additional opportunities to engage with the scholarship provider, such as mentoring opportunities and attendance at field days.

3. Eligibility

The following table outlines the criteria for the scholarships.

Terms and Conditions for Scholarship Applicants

Applications must be submitted by the due date advertised on the Application Form. Applications received after the closing date may not be considered.

Where you are asked to provide references or referees in support of your application, it is your responsibility to contact your referees and ask them to send their references to the Scholarships Office direct. References sent to the Scholarships Office should be clearly marked with your name and the name of the scholarship(s) for which you are applying. Referees should not be asked to send their references to you, as they must have the opportunity to be completely frank. Non-receipt of references or incomplete applications may prejudice your eligibility. The Scholarships Office may contact you referees to discuss references and your application(s).

If official documents are requested as part of your scholarship application, please do not send original documents. Send only copies that have been certified by a Justice of the peace, a solicitor, or a staff member in the Lincoln University registry. Unless specifically requested, please do not send a curriculum vitae. Lincoln University accepts no responsibility to return any original documents submitted.

Information submitted with your application must be true and correct.

A breach of Lincoln University's policies or procedures, including a disciplinary or code of conduct finding against you, may result in a scholarship being rescinded.

Information provided by you as part of your application, together with information already held by Lincoln University (including your academic record), will be shared with, and considered by, the Scholarship's Selection Committee.

The scholarships advertised by Lincoln University are subject to availability and the advertised offerings may change without notice, prior to award.

If you have any queries regarding your eligibility or how to apply, please contact the Scholarships Office on 0800 10 60 10 or scholarships@lincoln.ac.nz
